

STABILO LAUNCHES LIMITED EDITION STABILO x PANTONE DESK SET

Heroldsberg, August 2026 – STABILO International GmbH announces the launch of the limited-edition STABILO x PANTONE desk set of 30 highlighters, a curated celebration of color designed to inspire everyday creativity. The collaboration unites two global brands, both with color in their DNA – Pantone's unmistakable color authority and STABILO's commitment to colorful creativity through thoughtfully designed writing instruments.

A Celebration of Color

Created as a true color experience, the STABILO x PANTONE desk set combines expressive shades with a refined visual language. The included STABILO BOSS ORIGINAL highlighters come with exclusive white caps and distinctive white design prints, including the Pantone color number on each highlighter barrel, bringing STABILO and Pantone together in a clean, contemporary look. The color-coded base adds intuitive structure and visual appeal in Pantone's iconic design language. Every detail is designed to make choosing, using, and returning each marker an intuitive and satisfying ritual.

"When two color experts join forces, creativity takes on a whole new dimension. With Pantone, we found a partner who shares our passion for color," said Tatjana Edenhofer, Director Digital Business & Cooperation. "Together, we've created the STABILO x Pantone Desk Set – a bold celebration of color, creativity, and self-expression. Centered around the iconic STABILO BOSS ORIGINAL, the set transforms Pantone's world-renowned color expertise into an inspiring everyday creative tool, bringing a new dimension to how people engage with color."

Designed for Your Space

Whether used for study, planning, or creative exploration, the STABILO x PANTONE desk set transforms everyday tasks into moments of inspiration. With three display options, flat on a desk, upright, or wall-mounted, it integrates seamlessly into modern workspaces and creative environments.

"This collaboration brings together two brands that share color as their foundation and creativity as their purpose," said Laurie Pressman, Vice President of the Pantone Color Institute. "The new STABILO x PANTONE desk set combines Pantone's precise color standards with STABILO's beautifully crafted tools to give artists and designers a color-consistent creative companion they're proud to display and use wherever they create."
